

MAN SHOT BY HIDDEN ENEMY

Grant County Dairyman Is Fired Upon from Ambush
Near Silver City.

Silver City, N. M., Nov. 25.—William West, who conducts a dairy ranch about five miles north of Silver City, is in a local hospital suffering from a severe bullet wound in the left leg and arm. He was shot while standing in the back door of his ranch home. West was startled by the report of a gun and almost instantly fell in a crumpled heap. He fell a sharp pain in his leg, and on pulling up his trouser leg, he discovered blood flowing from a wound inflicted by a large sized rifle or revolver bullet.

He was brought to this city, where surgeons probed for and removed the bullet, and though he will be crippled for some time as a result of the injury, no serious results are anticipated. Officers discovered a point near the West home, which commands a view of the house, showing where a horse had been tied, and tracks led from there toward Silver City, indicating the animal had been ridden from the spot at a fast pace.

It is believed someone deliberately attempted to murder West from an ambush. So far as he knows, he has no enemies who might want to kill him. Chaplain W. K. Lloyd, of Fort Bayard, will deliver the eulogy at the annual memorial exercises of the Silver City lodge of Elks, which will be held on December 6. The exercises will be held at night in the Elks' opera house.

A Bad Stomach

Mrs. Emma Roake, 1612 W. Erie St., Chicago, Ill., a professional nurse, writes: "Peruna was a wonderful benefit to me. I suffered with catarrh of the stomach in a very bad form, could not eat without great distress. My stomach became sour, I had gas, and would belch up my food. My indigestion was so bad that I could not sleep without waking a dozen times in the night, often with intense pains. My breath was very bad. I used many remedies supposed to be good, but got no relief until after I had used Peruna. Then my recovery began, and while it was slow it was sure. I am therefore more than pleased to recommend Peruna for all catarrhal difficulties, as I am sure that it will cure them."

DANCED SELLS PICTURE FOR $25

Miss Ruth St. Denis Aids
Charity; Presents Splendid Dance Carnival.

Miss Ruth St. Denis auctioned two of her autographed photographs at the Texas Grand Tuesday night and netted $21 for the El Paso Women's Charity association. She had been invited to appear at the charity ball Wednesday night and give a solo dance as she had done in Dallas at a similar social function, but being unable to remain in El Paso, she decided to sell two of her photographs for the cause. The first, a picture of herself in peacock costume, was sold to Robert Krakauer on the second bid for $8. The second picture, started at $5, was finally run up to $25 and sold to Abe Barzman. It was a picture of Miss St. Denis in her Cobra costume. As an auctioneer, Miss St. Denis was irresistible and her witty remarks kept the audience in great good humor.

Miss St. Denis and company entertained the audience for two and a half hours with their dancing and it was all very enjoyable. The audience showed its appreciation of the modern dances rather more than it did for the classical affairs, if applause is to be taken as a criterion of success. However, the classical dances received sufficient applause to show that El Pasoans are not insensitive to this mode of entertainment. The performance closed with Miss St. Denis' famous "Myrtle Dance" of the "The Senses"—the Hindu temple dance, the act in which she had appeared in vaudeville throughout the world. It is accompanied by an elaborate temple setting, with real Hindun as attendants, the burning of incense and the weird native music of the East. Indiana Miss St. Denis owned the performance with her famous Cobra dance, and also presented her famous Egyptian desert dance, perhaps the most beautiful of her offerings, she also gave her Peacock dance and a Japanese flower dance, and appeared with Ted Shaw in some modern dances, including the newest New York sensation, "The Fox Trot." An Egyptian solo dance was another feature.

Aside from Miss St. Denis, besides her company of East Indians, were her brother, Rene St. Denis, a very graceful young man; Mr. Shaw, Miss Hilda Beyer and Miss Corinne. Miss Beyer is said to be considered by sculptors as one of the most perfectly formed young women in America. There were none in the audience to dispute the claim. She is as graceful as she is pretty and in her dancing with Mr. Shaw, who is as graceful as a bird and almost too handsome for a man, she won the audience in a second. Miss Beyer is the only Miss Fontaine in the opposite type. She is a luscious brunette and these three in the classic allegory that followed the opening act by Miss St. Denis, presented a stage picture that was the very poetry of grace and motion. Miss Fontaine was a stunner for the audience in her South American solo dance, the Svyllia, and in the Chinese minuet with Mr. St. Denis she also was a favorite. The evening was a graceful presentation of the classic "Fishes of Pan" dance, a conception of her own and Miss St. Denis.

It was the biggest dancing capital that El Paso amusement lovers have seen in a long time and was witnessed virtuously by crowded and fashionable houses, very few seats being vacant, rather a remarkable tribute to the performers since two crowded houses had greeted David Warfield the day before.

PRISONER WINS GIRL'S AID

Romance Invades Arizona
Penitentiary Through Eytinge's Letters.

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 25.—"Writing Business Letters Which Get the Business," is the title of a recently published book by Louis V. Eytinge, secretary of the Arizona state penitentiary. But Eytinge can write letters that get something more than business. His correspondence has won the friendship of Miss Pauline Lydia Divers, a New York business woman, and it is said her promise to his wife, Miss Divers, has set on foot a nationwide movement to obtain the release of her mail order lover.

Takes Romantic Turn.
Miss Divers is secretary of an advertising company, and is said to receive a salary of $5000 a year. Some months ago Eytinge, who is a recognized authority on business letter writing, prepared a series of form letters for the company. His correspondence was with Miss Divers. After the occasion for business correspondence had ceased, they continued personal correspondence. Photographs were exchanged. Eytinge asked Miss Clark MacFarlane, Elbert Hubbard and other writers who have been at the Arizona penitentiary, about Eytinge. She became convinced that he was the victim of a miscarriage of justice. Finally, it is claimed, her correspondence with the convict resulted in her pledge to become his wife as soon as he should regain his liberty.

About two weeks ago Miss Divers arrived in Phoenix. She went to the penitentiary and saw her fiancé for the first time. For a week she remained at Phoenix, spending as much time with Eytinge as the prison authorities would permit.

Miss Divers then came to Phoenix. She called upon Governor Hunt and other prominent citizens, to enlist their aid. An attorney was engaged to circulate petitions.

Governor Hunt gave her no encouragement to hope for a commutation or parole of Eytinge. Long ago he went over the transcript of the evidence in Eytinge's case and has talked over the case with local persons familiar with the details.

He is convinced that the conviction and sentence were justified and has turned a deaf ear to all importunities.

From Phoenix Miss Divers went to Los Angeles, where she succeeded in having the Woman's Advertising club pass strong resolutions asking the governor to free Eytinge. Every day the governor receives letters from prominent persons in all parts of the country, written at the instigation of Miss Divers.

In Sepsis of Rose Eytinge.
It is said to be a nephew of Rose Eytinge, the actress. He was born in Ohio. Eight years ago he came to Phoenix.

He was a health seeker from Sepsis, Wis. He left Eytinge money. They roomed together in Phoenix. One day a week or two after their arrival, they drove into the mesa north of Phoenix. Eytinge returned alone and disappeared. The next day his body was found. Eytinge was arrested a week later. Eytinge was arrested in San Francisco and brought back for trial. The conviction was circumstantial. It tended to show that he had killed Leicht by giving him chloroform in whiskey and then robbed him.

Makes Income in Prison.

In the penitentiary Eytinge took up the sale of hair goods and jewelry manufactured by the other prisoners. His letters attracted the attention of business men and eventually he became a contributor to business magazines on the subject of form letter preparation. He makes a good income by preparing form letters in the penitentiary.

TURKEY DAY TO BE FEAST TIME

Thanksgiving Will Be Observed in the Churches and Dining Rooms.

THANKSGIVING.
As I think of all the gifts That he has given me. And of all the many joys That I should thankful be, I scarcely can find words To utter my thanksgiving; So in prayer I'll say to him, "I'm thankful I am living."

Clarence A. Spencer, Ft. Bayard Sanatorium, New Mexico.

Thanksgiving will be observed Thursday in the business district by the banks closing for the day, the postoffice keeping open but two hours, from 9 until 11 o'clock, and many of the stores and business houses closing for a part, or all, of the day.

Mayor C. E. Kelly has issued his annual Thanksgiving proclamation and the city offices and courthouses will be closed. The city council will meet Friday instead of Thursday, the court of appeals met Wednesday and the customs and federal building will remain closed during the day.

The hotels will all serve special Thanksgiving dinners and there will be family dinners in practically all of the homes Thursday.

Thanksgiving Service.

The special Thanksgiving services will be held in the Westminster Presbyterian church where Rev. J. F. Williams, of the First Baptist church, will preach and at the Austin Park Christian church where Rev. Kenneth Brown, of the East El Paso Presbyterian church, will preach. There will also be Thanksgiving services at the church of St. Clement Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

Five hundred pounds of turkey were imported at the port of El Paso Tuesday afternoon and more large importations of the Thanksgiving birds are expected. The turkeys are grown on the ranches below Carlsbad. This year the supply will be smaller than heretofore as the ranchers report that domestic birds have been stolen. The high school and Texas School of Mines will play football at Washington park.

The library will close for the day Thursday.

Special dinners will be held at the fort for the officers and enlisted men.

"I am a painter and paperhanger by trade, consequently up and down ladders. About two years ago my left knee became lame and sore. It pained me at nights at times till I could not rest, and I was contemplating giving up my trade on account of it when I chanced to think of Sloan's Liniment. I had never tried it before, and I am glad to state that less than one 25c. bottle fixed me up apparently as good as ever."—Charles C. Campbell, Florence, Texas.

What Men Who Know Say

"I STOPPED OFF IN EL PASO TO INVESTIGATE MANHATTAN HEIGHTS"—said L. H. Prendergast, a real estate operator of Waco, Texas, "because I had heard of it being laid out upon a model plan. I found that it more than justified my expectations. In my opinion the Manhattan Heights plan will be adopted by modern cities as the best method of development of their residence districts. Such additions, paved, parked and restricted, mean much to any city. Manhattan Heights is being widely talked about far outside of El Paso. Few cities are so fortunate as to possess such a beautiful and splendidly improved residence section."
